

Full membership application

Full membership entitles you to Guild publications, phone advice, free contract vetting services, membership of the Guild's pension scheme, full voting rights and a name and credits listing on our website's 'Find A Writer' database.

Eligibility criteria for Full membership of the WGGB

(a) A Full member shall be any person who has accumulated eight membership points

(b) Membership points shall be allocated as follows, subject to the discretion of the Executive Council:

- For each single piece of written work of any description for which reasonable payment has been received under written contract, in terms not less favourable than those existing in current minimum terms agreements negotiated by the Guild (where such agreements exist) 8 points
- For each single piece of marketed written work produced or published other than under the terms of the previous paragraph 4 points
- For each completed year of Candidate membership (up to four years) 1 point

Please provide copies of any supporting documents with this form, for example a professional writing contract that meets the Guild's minimum terms.

All applicants for Full membership will be considered by the Guild's Executive Council. Full payment of annual membership subscription for the first year, £180, should be sent with this form.
